The above student authors generated this web page presentation as an assignment in Dr. Cooper's Medical Mycology course at Youngstown State University. Except for the indicated copyrighted material included within this electronic document, this web page is an intellectual product of the above students and Dr. Cooper. This page may be used for educational purposes only. Any other use requires the permission of the above authors as well as Dr. Cooper (crcooper01@ysu.edu).

Name of Fungal Disease
(44 point font)

Presentation Developed By: [28 point font]
Student Authors (28 point font)

This is a test slide [44 point font]

- Main line: [32 point font]
- Main line: [32 point font]
  - Secondary line [28 point font]
  - Secondary line [28 point font]
    - All lower subdivisions [24 point font]
      - All lower subdivisions [24 point font]

Name of Etiological Agent

- Geographic Distribution
- Life Cycle
- Epidemiology
- Pathogenesis

Name of Etiologic Agent (cont.)

- Continued from previous slide

Name of Disease

- Alternate Name(s) of Disease
- Etiologic Agent and Taxonomy
  - Fungus Name(s)
  - Classification of Fungus
- Diagnosis and Histopathology
- Clinical Manifestations
- Treatment/Disease Management/Prevention
Name of Disease (cont.)

- Continued from previous slide

Significant Case Reports

- Citation and brief summary including significance

References

- Alphabetical in Medical Mycology style (see Presentation Guidelines for specifics) in 24 point font